

The Highway 127 Corridor Sale World's Longest Yard Sale!

Set out for a leisurely drive along the 127 Corridor Sale route and be amazed at the wonderful adventures and unique treasures you will find along the way – from farm fresh produce, to home-made quilts, crafts, antiques, and amazing scenery. Thousands of vendors set-up to sell their goods during this 4-day yard sale extravaganza. Relax, take your time, and enjoy not only the many bargains you'll find – but the wonderful people and places on the Highway 127 Corridor Sale.

The annual 127 Sale always begins on the first Thursday in August and continues through the following Sunday of that week

The sale route is all along US Highway 127 from Hudson, MI to Lookout Mountain Parkway, which leads to Gadsden, Alabama.

Where do I begin?

The World's Longest Yard Sale stretches 675 miles from Gadsden, AL to Hudson, MI. You might decide to start at the southern end and travel north or vice versa. The route runs through 6 states – Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama! So, you could find the closest access to Highway 127 or Lookout Mountain Parkway to start your journey. See the map on the back of this brochure to find a city near you!

Where do I find yard sales?

Once you arrive on the sale route, you won't have to look hard to find a sale! Some areas have large groups of vendors, others may be scattered individually along the roadside. In some instances, you may travel for several miles without seeing a yard sale due to the distances between homes on the country roads. Yard sales can be found at homes, businesses, along side streets adjacent to the route, and in wide open spaces or fields along the sale route.

How long will it take to get from "point A" to "point B"?

That depends on how disciplined you are and how much ground you want to cover in one day. If you stop at every yard sale, then it may take awhile. One might "cruise" through yard sales and travel a good distance; but it easy to spend several hours in one area. Pre-Plan. Decide in advance how much time you want to spend in each area and try to stick with your plan.

Are there HOTELS near the yard sales, and should I make RESERVATIONS?

Yes, there are plenty of accommodations located along the way. Making reservations is a wise decision, but you have to be disciplined to make your destination for the night. Getting a room may be difficult if you wait too late in the day to find a place but not impossible.

How do I become a VENDOR?

Anyone can be a vendor by simply having a yard sale in their yard, at their business or setting up in designated vendor places. Many communities have places vendors can rent and set up a booth. The main thing is to be sure you have permission from the land owner to set up a booth. For a listing of available spaces for vendors, visit www.127SALE.com/vendor.

What can I SELL?

Almost anything! Popular items range from antiques, collectibles, dishes and glassware, to farm implements, food items, produce and more. Some things to consider, however, are business licenses and health department permits. Each town has different rules and regulations; so, check with the local City Hall for any licenses or permits you may need. If you plan on selling food, contact the Health Department in the area you will be setting up to obtain a temporary food permit. All food vendors are subject to a spot inspection by the Department of Health.
