

Map Legend

1. Huber Opera House — Built as a hotel in 1985 in Defiance County, this structure became the try-out theatre for George H. Huber's larger New York and Chicago theatres. This unique facility located in Hicksville is now being restored. The Huber is home to the Hicksville Village Players, as well as many other events and attractions. (419) 542-9553.

2. Pontiac Park — Located in Defiance as well as along the bank of the Maumee River, this picturesque park is a must see. Enjoy the view of the confluence of the Maumee and Auglaize Rivers and the grounds of Fort Defiance. Historically, Pontiac Park is the site of the Old French Apple Tree Marker and considered the possible birthplace of the Ottawa Indian chief, Pontiac. The park has recently become home to a new monument. Built and donated by a local merchant, the monument honors Defiance native Sam Hornish Jr., winner of the 2006 Indianapolis 500 and 3 time IRL points champion. (419) 782-0739.

3. Carnegie Library — Established in 1916, the Paulding County Carnegie Library was awarded an Ohio Bicentennial Historic Marker honoring the significance of the library being the first "county" library in the United States funded by Andrew Carnegie.

4. St. Josephs Church — Established 1896 — the push to form a Catholic parish in Paulding began in 1879 when the pastor of Antwerp made an effort to build a church in the town. But it was not until 1892 that Paulding was made a Station of Payne. In 1893, land was purchased and St. Joseph's church building was completed in 1896.

5. Main Strasse Village — In Covington, Ky, there is a restored 19th century German neighborhood offering vintage items, handcrafted gifts, antiques, and collectibles as well as delectable dining and evening entertainment. (859) 491-0458

6. Big Bone Lick State Park — Great herds of prehistoric mammals roamed this area because of the salt licks. The park offers indoor and outdoor displays and camping. (859) 384-3522

7. Frankfort (Kentucky State Capitol)
Nestled in the valley of the Kentucky River, Frankfort was chosen the state capitol in 1792. Completed in 1910, it is faced with limestone and embellished with 70 Ionic columns. Outside is the giant Floral Clock planted with thousands of colorful flowering plants. (502) 564-3449

8. Perryville Battlefield — The battle left 7,500 casualties in the care of the community's 400 residents. The events of October 8, 1862, would change the small town of Perryville forever.

9. Camp Nelson — Located along US 27 in extreme southern Jessamine County, Kentucky about 5 miles south of Nicholasville. The original camp covered 4,000 acres with some 300 buildings and fortifications.

10. Old Fort Harrod State Park — James Harrod built the first permanent settlement west of the Alleghenies at this site in 1774. Also includes the Lincoln Marriage Temple housing the cabin where Abraham Lincoln's parents were married; the 1830 Mansion Museum features paintings, war relics a Lincoln collection, and a pioneer cemetery. (859) 734-3314

World's Longest Yard Sale!

630 Miles of Fun
and Excitement!

10. Old Fort Harrod State Park — James Harrod built the first permanent settlement west of the Alleghenies at this site in 1774. Also includes the Lincoln Marriage Temple housing the cabin where Abraham Lincoln's parents were married; the 1830 Mansion Museum features paintings, war relics a Lincoln collection, and a pioneer cemetery. (859) 734-3314

11. Isaac Shelby Cemetery — State Historic Site - Visit the grave of Isaac Shelby, Kentucky's first and fifth governor. Isaac Shelby (1750-1826) was so highly esteemed for his military, political, and educational accomplishments that counties in nine states are named after him. Shelby was buried in the cemetery of his estate, known as Traveller's Rest. Isaac Shelby Cemetery State Historic Site is five miles south of Danville off US 127. Send inquiries to Constitution Square State Historic Site, Danville, KY. 859-239-7089.

12. Lake Cumberland State Resort Park — Particular favorites at this park are the Wildwood Cottages, set off the beaten path in perfect wooded seclusion. Also lodge, camping, marina, indoor pool, golf, tennis, hiking, nature center, and planned recreation. Lake Cumberland, one of the largest man-made lakes in the world, is reputed to have more bass, walleye and crappie than any other lake in America. (270) 343-3111

13. Mill Springs Battlefield — Largely forgotten today, and overshadowed in its own time by battles at Shiloh and Fort Donelson, Mill Springs was the first significant Union victory of the Civil War. It proved crucial to Union control of Kentucky and the interior South and shaped later developments in the war.

14. Dale Hollow Lake National Fish Hatchery — Dale Hollow Lake straddles the border between Kentucky and Tennessee, with a surface area of some 48 square miles and 620 miles of shoreline. The world's record smallmouth bass was taken here. The Fish Hatchery near the dam, offers tours. Lake (931) 243-3136 • Hatchery (931) 243-2443

15. Cordell Hull Birthplace and Museum — The Cordell Hull Birthplace Museum and State Park is an historic site located on forty-five acres in the rustic foothills near Byrdstown, Tennessee, midway between Nashville and Knoxville near the Kentucky border. The site consists of Hull's original log cabin birthplace, an activities center, and a museum exhibition building housing documents and artifacts pertaining to Hull's life and career. The collection includes his Nobel Peace Prize medal, which he donated along with many personal items. Newly added is the Bunkum Cave site and hiking trail. (931) 864-3247

16. Travisville Civil War Historical Site — Affair at Travisville: In the first military action in Tennessee during the Civil War, Union troops of the 12th Kentucky Cavalry and the Home Guards of Houstonville Cavalry attacked a Confederate encampment at Travisville on September 29, 1861. The 100 Confederate troops refused to surrender. After being fired upon and losing four men, the Confederates retreated into the surrounding hills. (931) 864-7195 • (1-888-406-4704)

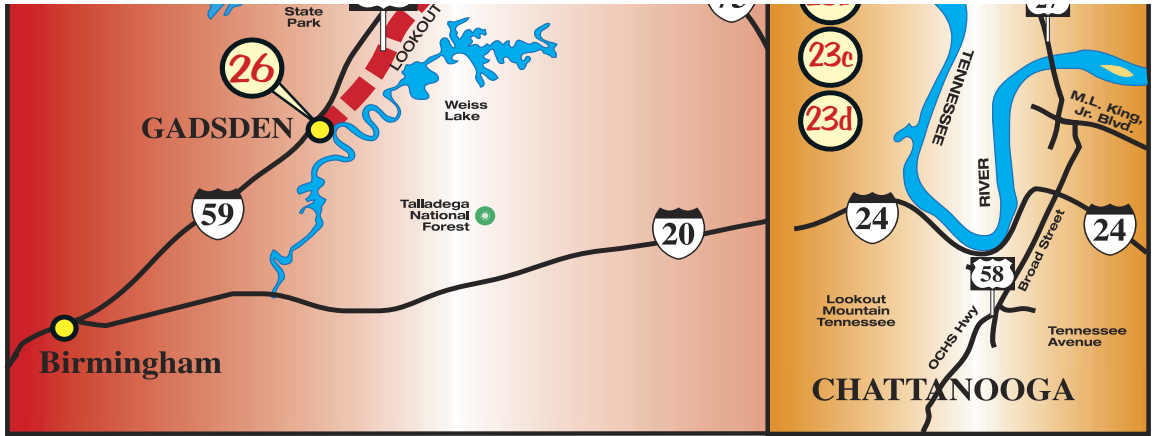

17. Sergeant Alvin C. York Mill and Burial Place — A State Historic Site, the York Mill is situated on the Wolf River in the scenic Pall Mall Valley. You can enjoy a beautiful day provided with perfect picnic areas with beautiful falls and swimming area. The burial place of Sergeant York, World War I hero and founder of York Institute, is nearby. (931) 879-4026

18. Pickett State Park & Big South Fork National River and Recreation Area

Pickett State Park - This wilderness park is distinctive for its unique geological formations and variety of vegetation which straddles the border between Kentucky and Tennessee. Heavy timberland, natural bridges, caves, and abundant wildlife are also attractive features. Fishing, camping, hiking, and boating can be enjoyed here. Cabins and chalets are available for rent. (931) 879-5821

Big South Fork - The nation's newest national park, the BSFNRA is a 100,000+ acre wilderness playground featuring hiking, horseback riding, mountain biking, camping, hunting, fishing, canoeing, whitewater rafting, and more. Bandy Creek Campground, headquarters for the national Park Service, has a visitor's center, bookstore, and craftshop and Olympic-size swimming pool. Also, enjoy the Big South Fork Scenic Railway located in Stearns, KY. Ride the rail into America's Most Unique National Park Attraction, Blue Heron, reliving a unique piece of American History. Tennessee (423) 569-9778 • Kentucky (800) 462-5664

19. Crossville Depot, The Palace Theatre, Military Memorial Museum, & Civil War Monument

Crossville Depot - The Depot was pictured in the 1941 movie Sergeant York with Gary Cooper. It was reopened in June 1996. Restoration was made possible due to the efforts of the Rotary Clubs of Cumberland County. The Depot contains a gift shop featuring railroad memorabilia. A community room is available for activities. (931) 456-2586

The Palace Theater - in downtown Crossville was for 40 years one of the focal points of Cumberland County's life. (931) 456-5520

Military Memorial Museum - Come take a walk through Military history. See items from the Civil War, WWI, WWII, Korea, Vietnam, Dessert Storm, and Iraq. Learn all about our Heroes, their uniforms, see photos, and hear music that will take you back to that time. Artifacts from the WWII P.O.W. camp that was located in Crossville are also on display. Admission is free but donations are accepted. (931) 484-8481

Civil War Monument - This is one of only two monuments in Tennessee known to honor veterans of both the Confederate and Union Troops on the same monument. The "V" shape represents the coming back together of the United States as a nation after the war.

20. Cumberland Mountain State Park & Homestead

— A restaurant, cabins, recreation lodge, 50-acre lake, an olympic size swimming pool, tennis courts, and picnic areas are outstanding features of this rustic park. (931) 484-6138

Homestead Tower - The Administrative Office of the Cumberland Homesteads Project, the Homestead Tower is now a museum of Depression Era memorabilia. On the National Register, it is the focal point of the Homesteads Community, which is a National Historic District. (931) 456-9663

21. Fall Creek Falls State Resort Park

— The Second largest park in the Tennessee System, Fall Creek is noted for its many waterfalls, of which Fall Creek Falls, at 256 ft., is the highest. An inn, restaurant, 18 hole Championship golf course, and nature center are outstanding features. (423) 881-3297

22. Dunlap Coke Ovens — A unique park that contains the ruins of 268 "beehive" coke ovens. Built in the early 1900's, the ovens were used to convert coal into industrial coke. Coal was mined on the mountain top above the ovens. The Park includes a natural outdoor amphitheater, and a museum is being developed. (423) 949-2156

23. Chattanooga, Chickamauga, and Missionary Ridge

— On these fields and hills, Union and Confederate armies clashed during the fall of 1863 in some of the hardest fighting of the Civil War. The prize was Chattanooga, key rail center and gateway to the heart of the Confederacy. (800) 322-3344

23a. Chickamauga & Chattanooga Nat'l Military Park

23b. Battles for Chattanooga Museum

23c. Chattanooga National Cemetery

23d. Chattanooga Regional History Museum

24. Cloudland Canyon State Park — Cloudland's 2,000-plus acres straddles a deep gorge cut into the mountain by Sitton Gulch Creek. The area was once home to Cherokee Indians, who in the early 1800's are believed to have worked a rich lead mine in the vicinity. No trace of the mine is left today. The park has rental cottages, tennis, hiking, camp and picnic area. (706) 657-4050

25. Desoto State Park & Little River Canyon National Preserve

— This park features some 5,000 acres of pristine forest land, stretching from the 100-foot DeSoto Falls to Little River Canyon. Camping and picnic sites with 20 miles of hiking trails are available as well as cabins and chalets, restaurant, nature center, tennis courts, and a country store. (256) 845-9605

26. Nocalula Falls Park

— Nocalula Falls is awe-inspiring as it plunges over 90 feet into the gorge below. Although it is the foundation of the park, thousands of visitors each year enjoy the park's botanical gardens, miniature railroad ride, and old time log cabin village of authentic restored buildings. The park offers a campground with hookups, swimming pool, recreation hall, and camp store. (256) 549-4663

